National Franchise Sales facilitates Subway franchisees' expansion plans: Houston based group grows by 14 units

National Franchise Sales, a leading franchise business brokerage company based in Southern California, with nine offices nationwide, has announced the completion of the sale of 14 Subway restaurants, in the Buffalo and Rochester areas of New York.

The seller, QSR Brands, LLC retained National Franchise Sales to sell the group of Subway restaurants with a combined annual revenue of $6.5 million restaurants located in upstate New York.

“We hired Joe and his company to sell our chain of Subways restaurants in Upstate NY and he completed the task with a terrific result, ahead of schedule and with almost no anxiety over the process. I don't think there is a better banker in American to handle an M&A transaction if the restaurant industry” said Jordan Levy of QSR Brands.

The buyers, Bharat and Renu Aggarwal, experienced multi-unit Subway franchisees based out of Texas, funded the transaction through their local lender Wallis Bank. This transaction expanded the Aggarwal's operation from 23 units to 37.

National Franchise Sales' agents Jerome J. Thissen and Joseph Thissen were instrumental in guiding both sides to a successful conclusion.

National Franchise Sales has been assisting franchisees and franchisors in sale of their businesses since 1978; they specialize in the resale of franchise businesses and small chains and has come to be known as an industry leader by successfully assisting franchisees, franchisors, trustees, and lenders.
